

Thursday, 21 October 2021

Physiology I

Chair: Shamay-Tsoory

9:00	Towards a psychoneurobiological framework of interpersonal trust	Krueger
9:30	Cultural differences in neurocognitive mechanisms of believing	Han
10:00	Invisible presences	Blanke

Break 10:30 – 11:00

Clinical Studies

Chair: Sugiura

11:00	The empathic brain: A two-brains approach for understanding the neural underpinnings of empathy	Shamay-Tsoory
11:30	Neural underpinning of human beliefs: Evidence from brain lesions	Cristofori
12:00	Believing in the Covid19-pandemic in individuals with bipolar disorders	Dalkner
12:30	Learning about credition	Madzarevic

Break 13:00 – 14:00

Physiology II

Chair: Krueger

14:00	Abstractness and language	Borghi
14:30	How our environment and emotional responses shape how we learn	Garrett
15:00	Sensorimotor basis of self-transcendence	Sugiura
15:30	Behavioral and neural mechanisms of social interaction: New developments in social neuroscience and implications for the study of psychiatric disorders	Schilbach

Break 16:00 – 16:30

Decision Making

Chair: Blanke

16:30	Neural mechanisms underlying expectation-guided decision-making	Kahnt
17:00	Where do our preferences come from? The impact of hard choices on the neural coding of preferences	Voigt
17:30	The influence of credition on decision making in the development of sustainable powertrain solutions	Kranabitl

Dinner 19:00

Friday, 22 October 2021

Modelling

Chair Hick

9:00	The synergies between understanding belief and artificial intelligence	Lumbreras
9:30	Doxastic and deontic models of belief	Vestrucci
10:00	The phylogenesis and ontogenesis of biases	van Eyghen

Break 10:30 – 11:00

Believing and Beliefs

Chair: Runehov

11:00	Why the multidisciplinary study of belief and believing matters so much.	Oviedo
11:30	Two concepts of 'belief' strength: Epistemic confidence versus identity strength	van Leeuwen
12:00	Degrees of belief and categorical beliefs	Dietrich
12:30	Evolving belief: Insights into the development and functioning of human society	Fuentes

Break 13:00 – 14:00

Believing, Appraising, and Meaning Making

Chair: Oviedo

14:00	Believing and appraising in meaning making processes	Park
14:30	Believing and the disposal of bodies after death	Applewhite
15:00	Believing and appraising in context: Cognizing experiences as events	Taves
15:30	Believing, appraising and lived experience: Can we separate them in practice?	Ihm

16:00 End of symposium